

VISITOR CENTER DISPLAY GUIDELINES

The City of Angleton does not provide display space to any person, group, or company that promotes activities or ideas that are contrary to or in opposition to the adopted budget and other policies of the City of Angleton.

Display materials must have a professional look and be created on a minimum of 100# cover or 100# text stock paper.

Only rack cards, brochures and magazines will be allowed in the display racks.

Display space may be provided only to (1) governmental entities or agencies that receive a majority of their funding from governmental entities; (2) select non-profit organizations and businesses that the City of Angleton believes to be of interest to the majority of citizens and visitors, and which promote and enhance the interests of the City of Angleton government.

All materials must fit within the approved display space of 8 ½" x 11"

All exhibitors must have permission to display their materials. If no permission is received, the materials will be immediately disposed of by the City of Angleton.

The City of Angleton will have total discretion of the location and placement of the materials in the display area.

The City of Angleton is not responsible for contacting exhibitor when materials are empty. It is exhibitor's responsibility to check on materials and fill display when needed.
